

Geocaching in the Abel Tasman

Geocaching is an outdoor treasure hunting game using GPS-enabled devices.

It's easy and it's fun.

There are plenty of geocaches hidden in the Abel Tasman National Park and well over a thousand in the Nelson/Tasman region.

How to get geocaching

1. First create an account with geocaching.com - either through their website or via the geocaching app
2. View a map on the app or website to see geocaches near you
3. Use the app to navigate to the geocaches
4. Log your find
